

To Whom It May Concern.

On behalf of all the crew on board MY Addiction I would wholeheartedly like to thank all the staff at Parsifal Yachting in Athens. A late decision towards the end of the summer season meant MY Addiction set sail on her maiden voyage to Greece, indeed a first visit for the Owners and most of the crew.

I was recommended to contact Parsifal Yachting by a close friend within the yachting industry, and that first telephone call to Parsifal Yachting set the high standards for the rest of our time in Greece. As in normal life it's not what you know but who you know, and Parsifal Yachting opened every door imaginable for MY Addiction, her crew, and most importantly the Owners.

I have never in fifteen years of yachting experienced a level of service from a shore based agency to match that of Parsifal Yachting. Their attention to detail, professionalism, and friendly and enthusiastic staff all contributed to making our visit to Greece so special. Thank you.

All our provisions arrived on time, each order was perfect, fresh produce and reasonably priced. We had electric motors repaired over-night, technicians and spare parts delivered to the yacht regardless of our location. Each island introduced us to another member of the Parsifal Yachting team, each was always happy to see us and make our Owners feel special.

A very big "thank you" must go to captain Savvas Kontrafouris who was appointed by Parsifal Yachting to look after MY Addiction during our stay in Greece. Savvas has over twenty years experience as a super yacht captain and his knowledge of the Greek islands was instrumental to our successful visit. Savvas recommended the best anchorages based on expert local weather routing, the best restaurants, suppliers, and must see places ashore for the guests. His ability to "make things happen" and his list of contacts on all the islands was invaluable during our visit to Greece. Savvas thank you.

I cannot speak highly enough of Parsifal Yachting, their staff and approach to helping visiting yachts to Greece, thank you so much from all the crew on board MY Addiction for making our time in Greece so special.
